

LANDING PAGE

A landing page is one of the best web development projects for beginners. A foundational understanding of HTML and CSS is required. You will learn how to add columns, divide sections, arrange items, add headers, footers. Create an impressive page using your creativity. It is important to pay attention to the alignment, the padding, the color palette, and boxes. Make sure CSS doesn't overlap elements.

